GETTING BACK TO BUSINESS

REBUILDING POST-COVID

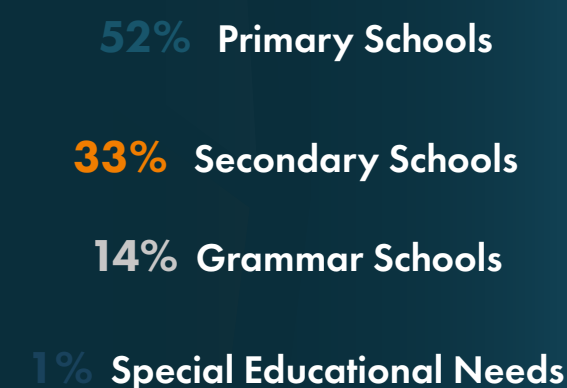

A transition year of rebuilding after school closures due to the COVID-19 pandemic, delivered through a blend of digital and in-school delivery methods.

In addition to standard programming, lots of innovative projects, such as Innovation2121 challenge on YE Academy.

“An excellent programme to help new Year 8 pupils to make the transition from primary to secondary school.”

Resilience Confidence Creativity Communication

"The Company Programme has helped improve my numeracy and interpersonal skills, since communication and managing finances essential aspects of running a company."

"Speaking up when I have an idea was a difficult thing to do but the company programme brought me out of my comfort zone which in turn helped me overcome this difficulty. This was a huge personal achievement for me!"

"I was able to stay calm under pressure which was a personal achievement for me."

"I was able to deepen and acquire new employer skills such as team work and organisational skills."

"Through the Company Programme I was able to enter the UU Assessment competition and came in the top 3 in Northern Ireland. This has given me more confidence in my written communication skills. My role as managing director throughout the company programme has helped me to develop more leadership skills, which was a personal goal for me."

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH BUSINESS

The work of the charity is core funded by the Department of Education, and this is matched by funding from the NI business community, local Councils, and charitable Foundations. This funding allows more young people to benefit from the work of the charity and supports the social mission of business. The Board of Trustees are grateful to them for their generous support and flexibility during the challenges of Covid. Find out how you can support at www.yeni.co.uk
